

Bailey Education Group Welcomes New Instructional Coaches

“As we continue to customize our services to meet the needs of our partner school districts,” furthered Ross, “we are welcoming new instructional coaches. Through these efforts, Bailey Education Group (Bailey) will continue its commitment to excellence by providing new solutions to improve the lives of all children.”

Kim Alda, of Pascagoula, has joined Bailey as an English Language Arts Instructional Coach. She served as an Instructional Coach/MDES-Sip Coach for Language Arts in Grades Pre-Kindergarten – Fifth Grade in the Moss Point School District after working with the Barksdale Reading Institute. Kim was received her master’s degree in Elementary Education from William Carey University and her Bachelor of Science degree in Elementary Education from Ohio State University.

Patricia Bynum, of Madison, who recently served as a third and fourth grade English Language Arts teacher in Madison County Schools, joins Bailey. Patricia was voted Camden Elementary Teacher of the Year. She received her master’s degree in administration from Mississippi College, and her bachelor’s degree in Elementary Education K-8 from Mississippi State University.

Christen Nichols, of Ocean Springs, joins Bailey having served the Ocean Springs School District as an elementary teacher at Oak Park Elementary School. Nichols received her Bachelor of Communications from the University of Southern Mississippi and her Bachelors of Elementary Education from Belhaven College. She later received her Master of Education in Curriculum and Instruction from William Carey University.

“Our goal is to improve the lives of all children, and with these additional instructional coaches, we can reach more school districts, educators, and students,” commented Ross. “We look forward to a great future!”
