

BAILEY EDUCATION GROUP IS GROWING

Bailey Education Group continues to grow as the company strives to improve the lives of all children. “We are pleased to announce the addition of two instructional coaches,” announced Pat Ross, Vice President of Operations.

Karen Addison, of Purvis, joins Bailey following retiring from the Lamar County School District, where she served as an Algebra and Geometry teacher. She received her Bachelor of Science in Mathematics with a minor in Secondary education from the University of Southern Mississippi and her master’s degree in mathematics education from William Carey. Addison will serve a mathematics instructional coach.

Barbie Ducksworth, of Clinton, recently served as the Education and Diploma Director of the Mississippi Community Education Center, and prior to that she was a Language Arts Instructional Specialist with Jackson Public Schools. She joins Bailey as an English language arts instructional coach. Barbie received her bachelor’s degree in language arts education and her master’s degree from Mississippi College.

“We look forward to a great future as we continue to further serve more school districts, educators, and children,” Ross commented.
